Why Hamburg?

Hamburg, Germany's most popular city. A unique destination among the urban centers of the world with a great quality of life. The maritime feeling attracts visitors to experience the vibrant atmosphere at the world famous harbour, while expanses of water and park areas provide unlimited options for recreation. Various offers of modern architecture, cultural entertainment and culinary diversity, as well as the traditional Hanseatic open-mindedness make Hamburg a particularly desirable place to live.

Photo: www.mediaserver.hamburg.de / C. Spahrbier

Convincing facts about Hamburg:

Port of Hamburg Discover one of the biggest European ports and its specificities.

Cruiser terminal The great Queen Mary 2 is going to visit Hamburg four times in 2010.

The new "Elbphilharmonie" Hamburg's most popular tourist attraction, once it will be finished in 2011.

"Hafen City" (Port City) is setting new standards in developing a whole new district of modern and futuristic design.

The Reeperbahn/St. Pauli See the world's most famous entertainment district with notorious discos, clubs, cabarets, bars and restaurants.

"Beatlemania" Explore the Beatles museum where everything started in 1960 at the Reeperbahn.

Fish Market A Sunday morning tradition since 1703. Here you can buy almost anything from all over the world.

Launch tour Do not miss a canal tour through the port and historic Storehouse city.

Musicals Current box-office hits are Disney's „The Lion King" and "Tarzan", as well as "Sister Act" starting in autumn 2010.

Fairs, congresses and events The ultra modern congress centre offers full service for the organization and holding of trade fairs and congresses.

Photo: www.mediaserver.hamburg.de / C. Spahrbier

east
RESTAURANT BAR LOUNGE HOTEL
THE SUN RISES IN THE EAST
HAMBURG

Photo: www.mediaserver.hamburg.de / E. Recke

Photo: www.mediaserver.hamburg.de / C. Spahrbier

east Restaurant Bar Lounge Hotel
Simon-von-Utrecht-Straße 31, D-20359 Hamburg
Tel.: +49 40 - 30 99 30 Fax +49 40 - 30 99 32 00
www.east-hamburg.de E-Mail info@east-hamburg.de